Senior Class of 1961 Presents

LEAVES OF LAFAYETTE

Dedication

We seniors wish to express our gratitude to Mr. Vernon Coy, our sponsor, for the time, advice, and encouragement he has so willingly given us. Without his understanding and guidance we would have missed many wonderful moments.

Mr. Coy, to you we give our humble and everlasting thanks.

Administration

Administration

Our yearbook this year centers around the theme, The New Look Of Our School. Two new classrooms have been added, steps have been replaced by ramps, a P.A. system has been installed, new windows have replaced old ones and many classrooms have attractive new floor coverings. All of these new improvements have taken a great deal of planning. Piles of lumber, stacks of material and cartons of new materials gradually fit into the giant puzzle that greeted us as we started school two weeks late this fall.

Many hours of discussion and work were needed to bring about this plan for remodeling Lafayette Central. This task has been very efsficiently done by the Trustee, Mr. Thorn;. our Principal, Mr. Boling and the advisory board: Mr. Ruthford Smuts, Mr. Paul Carbaugh, and Mr. Virgil Woods.

Principal

We have enjoyed a new experience this year in hearing daily reports announced over the P.A. system by our Principal, Mr. Ralph Boling.

Trustee

Mr. Everett Thorn was seen more frequently this year at the school as he checked the progress on the new construction work.

LAFAYETT

Choir Goes Caroling

The High School Choir went Christmas caroling Thursday, De cember 22. They went to Zanesville, Roanoke and to the homes of shut-ins. Afterwards, refreshments were served.

Students At Christmas Party

the afternoon of Decemthe students from grade ent to the gym for ar of Christmas fun. Eac s asked to present a talent ution. The different skits and other entertainment sented by each class was enoyed immensely.

The big Christmas tree from the upper hall was in the gym to add to the Christmas spirit. Christ Dmas carols were sung by the student body. The room mothe served ice cream, cookies punch to everyone. The was a gift from our teachers.

Santa Claus came to our par and the gifte exchange was the attraction to complete our Christmas party.

Sophomore News

arbara Reddin has withdrawn of November 21. Dwight Duhamell had his 16th birthday December 4th. The Class drew names for their Christmas exchange. We have chosen the price of $1.75 to spend on each gift.

There was quite a discussion about the transfer of students next year. Some people are undecided on where to go for their junior year.

Lynn Lopshire is now a qualified taxidermist. He will welcome any business you may give him.

The Sophomore Class would like to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Strike!

Monday afternoon
the bowling team Central, composed bauzh, Bonnie Le and Donna LeCoque, bea from East Union in a two-game series. The total amount o pins for the two games was 81 pins to 770 pins. Donna LeCoque had the high game of 142.

8th Grade N

The eighth grade has a new unit in Science abou human body. They seem to enjo it quite a bit. We are working on our songs for Christmas in music class. Janet Crowl's birth ay was December 12, 1960. We sh you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Standing: Mike Carroll, Dennie Deuter, Danny Platt, Gary Maitlen, Jerry Young, Bill Bailey.
Seated: Sandy Cummings, Kay Platt, Linda Fairchild, Sharon Bailey, Mary Ann Bowman, Roxie Kreigh.

Student Council

Our student council, under the guidance of Mr. Boling, has been in existence for four years. This organization has accomplished many good deeds for Lafayette Central. The council sponsors several assembly programs each year for the student body. These programs have included The Glass Blower, Smith and Dane's Varieties, and Valentines Pets. The council also sponsors the "Queen Contest" at the annual fall festival. Programs such as these enable the council to buy pins for each of the members.

8th Grade Science looks to the future. David Hobbs, Joyce Reed, Mr. Amstutz, Janet Crowl and Steve Haver ponder on this.

And Study???

A Corner to Learning
Many hours are spent in our Library Study Hall. Here Connie Smith, Jim Rupert, Bob Woods, Becky Beck, and Gary Bowersock and Bob Evans struggle over daily lessons with the help of Mrs. Edgar while Tim Feighner chooses a book.

Above:
Mr. Dolby is training future secretaries in the Shorthand II class. Dianna Martz, Clodella Blauser, Sylvia Crandel, Sharon Brickley and Marian Jackson will be very pretty ones, too.

Left:
Dead or alive? Carol Bailey, Gene Baker, Linda Fairchild and Kenneth Lorenz are finding the view interesting, with the help of Mr. Amstutz, their Biology teacher.

Below: Mrs. Leedy shows Barbara Haver, Joyce Bailey, Carol Buell and Donna Tobias that there is more than one way to be in a "stew."

Mr. Coy is showing the right way to do an experiment. Connie Smith, Pat Byers, Gene Bissell and Roy Buskirk are learning this in the Chemistry class.

Backstage

A person who works backstage for the first time will say, "I didn't realize there was so much to it." Seniors become acquainted with a new phase of life when they begin rehearsals for a play. Cues are studied, make-up is applied, 'up center,' 'down right,' 'down center,' and many other terms are introduced to the cast.

Mrs. Edwards very capably directs the plays at our school. Below: Here she is applying make-up to Roxie Kreigh.

Fall Festival

Bozo the Clown was a major attraction for the young and old at the Festival this year.

The Fall Festival is one event that we all look forward to attending each year. This is the major event which is sponsored by the P. T. A. for raising funds to help the school.

Games of all kinds, novelties and hats, balloons and foods are here to tempt us to part with our allowances. But for this good cause, we are happy to enjoy all of the Festival.

A Queen and attendants are chosen each year for the Fall Festival. This year Joyce Bailey was chosen the Queen and Judy Tackwell, Mary Ann Bowman and Becky Beck were her attendants.

Adding to the color and activities of the basketball games are a group of girls who give much of their time to practice and give the fans a good performance at each game.

Their attractive costumes which were designed this year, add much to the Pirate theme of the school and team name.

Convocations

Below: Reverend Art Gaunt, Mr. Don Lonie and Mr. Boling.

At the sound of three bells the entire student body swarms into the gym for some interesting programs, informal chats, or instructions from Mr. Boling. Here the students are enjoying a talk by Mr. Don Lonie.

"May we help you, David Hobbs and Jerry McClure?" Store helpers, Roland Denney, Barbara Haver and Tom Deuter make a pleasant picture.

Junior Store

Two very capable managers, Roy Buskirk and Richard Clark, play an important part in making this project a success. It is their duty to appoint daily help, order new stock, and take inventory.
Mr. Leon Dolby aids the Junior class with this work.

Below: Mary Ann Bowman helps a small customer as Jon Carroll and Richard Clark look on.

The Junior Store, which is open during the noon hour, is one of the major ways of making money. Halls are crowded at noon as the students wait impatiently to spend their money.

Our Cindrella Team

We see our athletic teams win; we see them lose. To all students, sports are as much a part of the school as books and classes. . . Sports are the spirit of a vibrant youth wishful of combining education and recreation to a successful end.

This year Lafayette Central was defeated often on the playing floor during the basketball season, but with the losses came the realization that winning was not everything. It only made the players more determined not to quit and to play harder the next time.

Going into the County Tourney of 1961 with a record of 3 wins and 10 losses, Lafayette Central was certainly considered the underdog by everyone, except the players themselves. Fans hoped but did not see how the team could possibly get past the first game.

The first game Friday afternoon saw Bishop Luers and Lafayette Central starting the second half with Lafayette Central trailing by 20 points and trailing 19 points going into the final period of the game. Lafayette Central staged a tremendous comeback to nip Leurs by a score of 73 to 71 in a double overtime with tiny "Tim Feighner" getting the winning basket.

At the end of regulation time the score was tied at 70 to 70. Two free throws, one by each team, was scored in the first overtime. Then with just 9 seconds gone in the second overtime, Tim shot; the ball touched only the bottom of the net as it swished through to cap one of the biggest rallies ever witnessed at the Coliseum.

With one upset under their belts the Pirates played Arcola on Saturday afternoon. Only a few weeks before Arcola had beaten Lafayette Central by 45 points. Again in that game the Pirates staged an impossible comeback, for after trailing by eleven points at the half, the game ended in a 47 to 47 tie. Then with two seconds to go in the overtime and Arcola leading 52 to 51 Bill Bailey was fouled. He sank both foul shots to give Lafayette Central their second upset in that many days.

Bill Bailey was not only a hero for scoring the last two points of the game, but for scoring the last eighteen points for Lafayette Central. He ended the game with 32 points, one short of the county tournament record. Bill was supported by his determined teammates all the way.

In the final tournament, Lafayette Central was defeated by a superior Leo team by the score of 80 to 50. But we are proud of a team that put on a great show for the tournament, a team that can hold their heads high. . . . the Cinderella Team of the 1961 Allen County Tournament.

Tournament Tidbits

Bill Bailey, of Lafayette Central, scored the most points in the Tourney. The sharpshooting guard who paced the Pirates to two thrilling come-from-behind victories before they finally ran out of gas in the championship contest, collected 59 points in three games. He stuffed in 22 field goals and hit 15 of 19 attempts from the foul line.

The 5'9" senior not only scored 32 points—one shy of the single-game record—Saturday afternoon, but he got all of the Pirates' last 18 points. He followed that up by getting the Bucs' first four points in the final game, accounting for 22 straight points.

Now it comes time to pick an all-tournament team. . . . It isn't easy, but judging by the way they looked to these eyes, here's the way we've narrow down the long list:

FIRST TEAM	Pos.	SECOND TEAM
Fox, New Haven	F	Saalfrank, Hoagland
Norr, Leo	F	M. Miller, Leo
Evans, Laf. Central	C	Arnold, Arcola
Bailey, Laf. Central	G	Graham, Leo
Peppler, Arcola	G	Alt, Luers

Leo High School owns its seventh county basketball tournament championship today, but the 1961 meet will long be remembered as the one in which Lafayette Central's never-say-die Pirates pulled not one but two "impossible" victories out of the fire.

The final score was 80-50, but Lafayette Central can hold its head high. The Pirates didn't figure to be playing in the final game and as their coach, Max Amstutz, stated before the game, "We'll give it our best but we aren't in Leo's class."

When it comes to never giving up the ship, these Pirates are in a class by themselves.

Gaughan is the coach of the Bishop Luers Knights and they made history at the Memorial Coliseum Friday afternoon when they made their debut in the county tourney.

This is the 38th annual county basketball meet and i very doubtful if any team in the long history of the tou nament has ever had happen to it what the Knights we handed yesterday.

Lafayette Central was the opponent. The Knights, d primarily to their rugged schedule, were favored. And appearerd as though the form chart would be followe Luers led, 43-23, at the half. And they led by a 53- margin midway in the third period. And they led by going into the final period. And they lost!

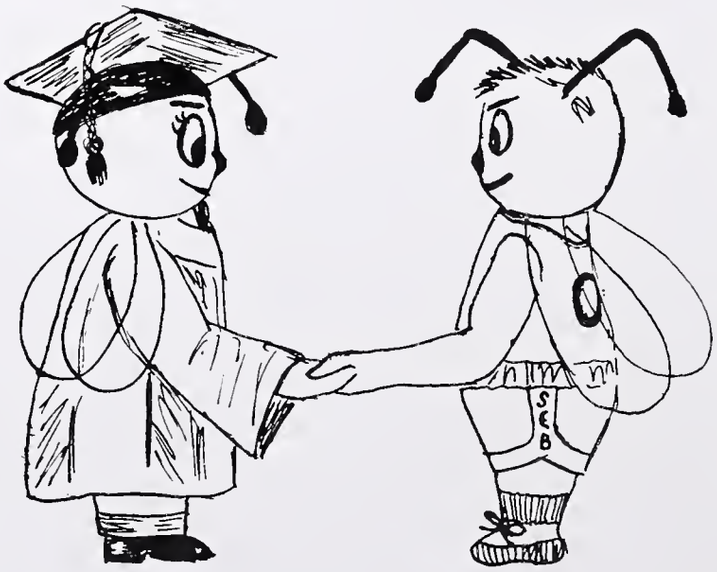
What happened is now history. The Pirates of M Amstutz staged a tremendous fourth-period rally a went on to win the contest in a double-overtime.

And the honor of scoring the winning field goal went to the smallest man in the tourney. Amstutz told "Tiny Tim" Feighner—all five feet and 98 pounds of him—to "shoot if you get an open shot". "Tiny Tim" found himself wide open after just nine seconds of the sudden death stanza and fired with his left hand. Since he was about 25 feet out, he had to leap off the floor to get the ball all the way to the basket. This he did and it swished through perfectly, climaxing an uphill battle the likes of which have probably never been seen in the history of the tournament.

Amstutz was practically speechless after the ball gan This is Lafayette Central's last year as a high school a consequently its last fling in the county tourney. Regar less of what happens today, it will be some time befo fans forget the Bucs' final year in the meet.

Lafayette Central, which w two come-from-behind overti triumphs, just couldn't keep pa with Leo last night. But the scra py Pirates never gave up. T Bucs, who can look anyone in eye with plenty of pride, hit a fine .364 pace from the fie scoring on 20 of 55 shots. But th had neither the height nor stamina to stay in contention more than the first half.

Coach Max Amstutz' Pira gave Leo all it could handle more until they finally ran out gas. With Bailey setting the pa Lafayette Central surged to a 12 advantage at the initial pau The lead changed hands six tin and score was tied on four ot occasions during the opening riod.



With a mixed feeling of regret and relief that a task is ended, and yet a feeling of pride that the task has been accomplished, that of giving you this 1961 yearbook, we go back to the theme of this book - "The New Look." - - - - - We had new halls to walk in, new rooms to enjoy, new problems to meet and solve, and last but not least, - - - - A new determination to succeed - - - That determination given to us by a spunky Cinderella Basketball Team.
